Thursday 20th November - International Children's Day

Together with schools across Sefton we will be celebrating International Children's Day on Thursday 20th November. The children will have looked at Unicef's Rights of the Child and all children will have given some thought to those whose basic human rights have been denied. More information can be found at www.unicef.org.

Join with us as we try to create a world fit for children. We all have a vital role to play in ensuring every child enjoys a childhood.
